THE EICHMANN TRIAL

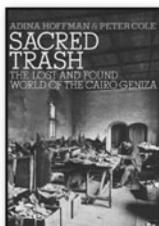

by Deborah Lipstadt

Award-winning historian Deborah Lipstadt offers a compelling reassessment of the groundbreaking trial that has become a touchstone for judicial proceedings throughout the world in which victims of genocide confront its perpetrators.

"An excellent work of historical and political analysis by an accomplished writer. . . . It grips the reader from its opening pages. With this book, Deborah Lipstadt consolidates her standing as one of the major figures in the Jewish world today."

—Anthony Julius,
author of Trials of the Diaspora

SACRED TRASH

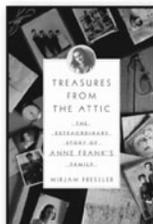

The Lost and Found World of the Cairo Geniza

by Adina Hoffman
and Peter Cole

"Sacred Trash is . . . a lively and deeply informed account of the Cairo Geniza, a magnificent Egyptian treasure-house of Jewish religion, literature, and history that was forgotten for centuries, and of the extraordinary crew of scholars and impresarios who saved the documents, fitted the scraps back together, and made them speak and sing."

—Anthony Grafton, Princeton University

TREASURES FROM THE ATTIC

The Extraordinary Story of Anne Frank's Family

by Mirjam Pressler

Alice Frank, the matriarch of the Frank family, left Germany for Switzerland in the 1930s, and though her family was scattered across Europe, she remained at the hub of their lives. Alice kept their voluminous correspondence upstairs in her house, which was eventually passed down to her grandson, Buddy Elias, Anne Frank's childhood playmate, and his wife, Gertrude. In the house Gertrude uncovered a lost treasure trove (6,000 documents) and an utterly engaging, endearing, and convincing account of the family that made Anne Frank who she was.

TO THE END OF THE LAND

by David Grossman

Translated by Jessica Cohen

"[A] gripping meditation on love, war, suffering and rebirth. In the future this may be regarded as Israel's definitive anti-war novel. . . . [T]his transformative work marks the zenith of years spent scrutinizing the profound difference between survival and living. . . . Rarely has the Janus nature of Israel—both nurturing womb and militarized 'land that devours its inhabitants'—been so stunningly realized."

Central European History

EDITORS:

KENNETH LEDFORD,
Case Western Reserve University

CATHERINE EPSTEIN, Amherst College

Central European History offers articles, review essays, and book reviews that range widely through the history of Germany, Austria, and other German-speaking regions of Central Europe from the medieval era to the present.

All topics and approaches to history are welcome, whether cultural, social, political, diplomatic, intellectual, economic, and military history, as well as historiography and methodology. Contributions that treat new fields, such as post-1945 and post-1989 history, maturing fields such as gender history, and less-represented fields such as medieval history and the history of the Habsburg lands are especially desired. The journal thus aims to be the primary venue for scholarly exchange and debate among scholars of the history of Central Europe.
