Professor Morna Hooker, The Divinity School, Cambridge
Professor Maurice Wiles, Christ Church, Oxford

Founded in 1899, The Journal of Theological Studies has long been recognized as one of the leading English-language periodicals in the field. Covering the entire range of theological research, it is distinguished for both its breadth and depth of scholarship. In addition to full-length original research papers the journal publishes shorter Notes and Studies. A further large part of each issue is devoted to authoritative and sometimes discursive reviews of the most significant new English and other publications. Ancient and modern texts, inscriptions and documents which have not before appeared in type are also sometimes reproduced.
