STEPHEN'S COMMENTARIES ON THE LAWS OF ENGLAND

21st Edition. Editor-in-Chief: L. CRISPIN WARMINGTON, Solicitor of the Supreme Court (Honours). In four volumes and Supplement. Price, £6 15s. net, per set. Supplement alone, 5s. net.

"Indeed, if a treatise sets out to provide 'a complete elementary statement of the law of England' . . . it is difficult to see how this ambitious aim could have been better achieved. It is quite astonishing how much is covered."—Law Notes.

JAMES'S INTRODUCTION TO ENGLISH LAW

By PHILIP S. JAMES, M.A., of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law, formerly Fellow of Exeter College, Oxford. Price, 12s. 6d. net, by post 1s. 1d. extra.

"The real value of the book is that it is founded on profound scholarship and sound learning and that the style is clear and concise."—The Law Times.

FIFTY FORENSIC FABLES

By "O." With the author's original illustrations. Price, 12s. 6d. net, by post 6d. extra.

"These short fables are alive with the breath of human interests and activities . . . a humour and quiet sarcasm which cannot but delight."—Times Literary Supplement.

"I know of no legal work in lighter vein, ancient or modern, which for luminous wit and humorous characterisation can compare with these Forensic Fables of 'O.'"—The Law Journal.
