

WINTER, 1982
Vol. 7, No. 2

$3.00

Reg. No. VAW 4651

The Development of Financial Counselling in Australia

Adoption—

Inter-Country adoption policy in Australia—The Abnegation of Responsibility

Prisoner-Mothers

Out of school care in Australian Capital Territory: The view of children and parents

IN THIS ISSUE

Australian
Child and Family
Welfare
(QUARTERLY)

EDITORIAL	2
Margarita Frederico
THE DEVELOPMENT OF FINANCIAL COUNSELLING IN AUSTRALIA	3
Andrew Jones
In this article the author explores the development of financial counselling in Australia and links this aspect of counselling with the network of family support services.
ADOPTION	10
INTER-COUNTRY ADOPTION POLICY IN AUSTRALIA—THE ABNEGATION OF RESPONSIBILITY?
Cliff Picton and Rosemary Calder
Inter-country adoption, a recent arrival in the field of adoption in Australia, has caused dilemmas for Commonwealth and State Governments in determining their responsibilities. This article looks at the history of inter-country adoption and challenges the assumptions behind current Government roles.
CASE NOTES	14
Introduction—Anne Jeffrey
The experience of an adoptive mother and her daughter in fostering.
Irene Robinson
RESEARCH NOTES	20
The “Only Child” as an issue in Adoption Policy: Myth and Evidence.
J. Kraus
The author reviews research findings regarding the development of the only child and concedes the implications of these findings for adoption policy.
OUT OF SCHOOL CARE IN THE AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY: THE VIEWS OF CHILDREN AND PARENTS	22
Report of Children’s Services Sub-Committee A.C.T. Consultative Committee on Social Welfare.
This article presents the results of consultation with organisations providing holiday and after school programmes, and makes recommendations regarding these programmes, based on information obtained in the consultations.
PRISONER-MOTHERS	24
Dennis Challinger
A review of current knowledge regarding the experience of women in prison and their children. The author suggests approaches which will assist in ensuring the welfare of the children remains the overriding factor in any action on the issue.
BOOK REVIEWS	30

**cover picture by kind permission of ‘SEE’*