EIGHTH LIST OF
 ACCESSIONS TO THE CATALOGUE OF SLIDES
 IN THE JOINT COLLECTION OF THE SOCIETIES FOR THE PROMOTION OF HELLENIC AND ROMAN STUDIES

WHICH WAS ISSUED WITH VOL. XXXIII. OF THE JOURNAL OF HELLENIC STUDIES, AND WITH VOL. III. OF THE JOURNAL OF ROMAN STUDIES.

(Subsequent accessions are published annually.)

Copies of this Accession List may be had, price 6d.

The slides prefixed with the letter B are the property of the Roman Society.

SETS OF SLIDES.

THE main collection of nearly 6000 lantern slides, to which this list forms the eighth supplement, can be drawn on in any quantity, large or small, for lecturing on practically any branch of classical archaeology. For those who have opportunity, no method is so satisfactory as to come in person to the Library, and choose the slides from the pictures there arranged in a subject order corresponding with the printed catalogue.

But the scheme for supplying SETS OF SLIDES for popular lectures, and also for those lecturers who have not facilities for choosing their own slides, grows increasingly useful.

For these sets, in accordance with a suggestion made by Mr. G. H. Hallam, various scholars and archaeologists have been good enough to write texts, forming lectures of about an hour's duration. These are issued with the sets and can be used either as they are, or to form a basis or corrective of the lecturer's own treatment.

The thanks of the Society are accorded those who have been at the pains of undertaking the not easy task of telling a plain tale on the subjects with which they are most familiar to a general audience.

Suitable handbooks dealing with the different subjects can also be lent from the library to lecturers in advance of their lectures.

LIST OF SETS.

Those in darker type are specially recommended for the purpose for which the series was designed—the bringing of the most striking and characteristic features of the ancient world before a general audience.

The sets consist of about 50 carefully selected slides, and the cost of hire, including postage to members, is 4s. 6d.
