IN THE REDEEMING CHRIST

F. X. Durrwell, C.S.S.R.

Durrwell made his name in this country as a nouvelle vague theologian with his big book, The Resurrection. Here he extends many of his original ideas in terms suitable for popular consumption.

PSYCHOLOGY OF SEX INSTRUCTION

H. M. Dresen-Ceonders

8/6

A distorted morality of sex has produced many blind alleys for Christians. This book sets out to by-pass them and to show the role which sex plays in the development of the whole person. It is a book intended for all Christians concerned in any way with the problems of sex instruction.

APPROACH TO MONASTICISM

Dom Hubert van Zeller, O.S.B.

8/6

Approach to Monasticism is a new title in the now well established van Zeller Approach series.

THE GOD WHO LOVES US

Revv. Weber & Killgallon

12/6

This is a liturgical cycle of reflections on the Gospels. They are offered to the layman as much as to the priest, for it goes without saying that the word of God must be preached by us all.

The Abbot of Downside

The Right Reverend Christopher Butler is said to have made important contributions to the discussions at the first session of the Second Vatican Council. A guide to his thought may be found in his recently published works:

THE IDEA OF THE CHURCH

Father Laurence Bright, O.P., has written "There is no resemblance to a polemical statement of 'Roman Catholic claims', but rather a calm enquiry into the nature of the Church as it exists in history . . . A book of considerable distinction." in the Catholic Herald.

Father Francis Clark, S.J., has called the book "a very important contribution to ecumenical discussion . . . conducted with great clarity, balance of judgment and scholarly serenity." in the Month.
