Conference on Environment, Health and History 12–15 September 2007

The Centre for History in Public Health, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, University of London, on behalf of the European Association for the History of Medicine and Health, invites the submission of abstracts and poster proposals for a conference on environment, health and history to be held in central London in September 2007. A 300-word abstract with the title of the paper and paper giver's name is required.

Submission of sessions of three to four people, with or without a session chair are also encouraged. However, the EAHHM Board reserve the right to revise these sessions, including the chair. A proposed paper giver should not also double as a session chair.

Separate poster proposals are also encouraged. We would really like to see such proposals and a poster exhibition reception and poster prize presentation will be timetabled into the conference. Abstracts and other proposals should be submitted to Ingrid James ingrid.james@lshtm.ac.uk preferably by e-mail attachment by 17 November 2006.

Proposals will be considered by the EAHHM Scientific Board and presenters will hear if their abstract/poster or session has been accepted by the end of January 2007.

Registration details for the conference will be available from early 2007. Further details of plenary speakers and conference events will be posted. The conference organizational address is: Centre for History in Public Health, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, Keppel Street, London WC1E 7HT. Website: <http://www.lshtm.ac.uk/history>
