

EDITORIAL

I wish to thank Dick Bulliet and Ellen Hermanson, former MESA Executive Secretary and Assistant to the Executive Secretary, respectively, for all their help and advice while MESA headquarters was in New York. I am fortunate that their spirit of support continues with Michael Bonine and Louise Fields who now hold those two offices, respectively.

This fall I drew more than ever on the skills and expertise of Theo MacKay and Barb Shurin, as I had to spend a great deal of my time on the MESA 1981 meeting. I am extremely grateful for and proud of their contributions to the Bulletin.

As always, I conclude this editorial with a plea that you, the readership, share with me news of conferences, promotions, appointments, fellowships, doctorates, and any other information which I may include in future issues. Please mail your flyers, announcements and notes to:
