

CHRONIQUE — ANNOUNCEMENT

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY

The graduate philosophy students and faculty of the American University are pleased to announce a conference in philosophy for graduate students studying in the United States and Canada. The American Graduate Student Conference in Philosophy will be held October 25, 26 and 27, 1974 on the campus of The American University in Washington, D.C. There is a call for papers from all subjects areas in philosophy. Further particulars of this conference shall be sent to those addressing their inquiries to American Graduate Student Conference, The American University, Department of Philosophy and Religion, Massachusetts and Nebraska Avenues, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20016.

HUSSERL ARCHIVE

The Husserl Archive at the New School, established in memory of Alfred Schutz, is available for use by qualified scholars. The archive contains a nearly complete set of Husserl's inedita photo-copied from the original transcriptions held in the Husserl Archive at Louvain. The contents of the archive are in German and can be read without the use of a machine. Potential users may consult Philosophy and Phenomenological Research, vol. VII, no. 3 (March, 1947) for a survey of the contents of the archive. Materials may not leave the archive.

Address inquiries to:

The Directorate of the Husserl Archive
Dept. of Philosophy
The Graduate Faculty
The New School for Social Research
66 West 12th Street
New York, N.Y. 10011
