JOURNAL OF SOUTHEAST ASIAN STUDIES

The Journal of Southeast Asian Studies is an international refereed journal published for the Department of History, National University of Singapore, by Singapore University Press (Pte) Ltd in March and September. Contributions are invited from scholars working in all disciplines in the Humanities and Social Sciences, and should deal with the Philippines, Indonesia, Brunei, Singapore, Malaysia, Burma (Myanmar), Thailand, Cambodia, Laos or Vietnam. The editorial board prefers manuscripts of 4,000 to 8,000 words oriented toward a specialist readership composed of scholars from various disciplines, but written to be accessible to non-specialists. Material should be fully documented and of enduring value; analyses of current affairs which may quickly fall out of date, and pieces containing policy prescriptions, are rarely accepted. Before a manuscript can be published, it must conform to the Journal's style sheet which is available upon request. Submission of an article will be taken to mean that it has not been previously published and that it is not on offer to any other publisher. Contributors are encouraged to submit articles through electronic mail, or to submit hard copy computer printouts, whenever possible. Authors receive a complimentary copy of the issue of the Journal in which their piece appears, and 30 offprints.

Material appearing in the Journal of Southeast Asian Studies does not necessarily represent the views of the Editors or the publisher, and responsibility for opinions expressed and the accuracy of facts published in articles rests solely with the individual authors.

Editorial correspondence, requests for permission to reprint articles, and contributions should be directed to:
