

INSTITUTE NOTES

Membership : In January last the Council issued the first list of 1,375 Members of the Institute as a proof for correction.

Members are reminded that if they desire any corrections to be made in their names, addresses, and descriptions, they should notify the Director to that effect on the form which will be found inside the cover of the list.

A few members are still in arrear with their subscription of ten shillings for the year ended March 31st. Thereafter the subscription is one guinea per annum, payable on April 1st. Members of the Institute are entitled to free delivery of the Journal and to attend all courses of lectures at half fees. Members are invited to use the form of instruction to Bankers to pay the subscription.

Library : The Council desire to express their thanks to the Executors of the late Bernard Bosanquet, and to the Hon. Bertrand Russell, for contributions of books. The preparation of a catalogue is in hand.

Voluntary Services : On p. 139 of the last issue of the Journal an invitation was extended to members to assist in carrying on the heavy work of the Institute, and the Council gratefully acknowledge the offers of voluntary service they have received with a view to the extension of the organization of the Institute.

Lectures—Summer Term : The following lectures will be given under the auspices of the Institute during the ensuing Summer Term :—

PROFESSOR LEONARD J. RUSSELL, M.A.

(Second term). Science and Philosophy—“ The Conception of Matter.”

On Tuesdays, at 5.30 p.m., commencing April 27th, at Bedford College for Women, Regent's Park, N.W.

A course of four lectures on Topics in Æsthetics.

On Fridays, May 7th to 28th inclusive, at 5.30 p.m., at the Royal Anthropological Institute, 52 Upper Bedford Place, W.C. Further particulars to be announced later.

Preliminary Notice : Arrangements are being made for two or three lectures to be given by Professor S. Radakrishnan, M.A., of the University of Calcutta, on The Philosophic Basis of Hinduism.

The time and place of the lectures will be announced later.

Notice of Postponement : The course of six lectures on the “ Philosophy of Religion,” by the Very Rev. Dean Inge, D.D., D.Litt., announced in the syllabus for the Summer Term, has been unavoidably postponed. It is hoped the course will be given in the Session 1926–27.

Report and Accounts : It is proposed to make up the accounts of the Institute to the end of March 1926, and to submit them with a report from the Council at a General Meeting of the members to be held on a date to be announced later.

E. G.

Those desirous of becoming members of the Institute are invited to apply for forms of application to the Director of the Institute, 88 Kingsway, London, W.C. 2.
