The Convent Mirror

Conferences for Religious. By Very Rev. F. T. HOEGGER, c.s.sp., 254 pages. 22/6

The considerations here presented serve, as it were, as a 'mirror' in which Religious may view their spiritual character with its many little faults and foibles as well as its genuine virtues. If the author does at times use a sharp scalpel in laying bare the hidden weaknesses to which human nature, even in Religious, has fallen heir, his treatment nevertheless is always kind and gentle.

Priests who are called upon to give conferences and counsel to Religious will find here a storehouse of helpful material.

Life of Mother Catherine Aurelia of the Precious Blood

Foundress of the Institute of the Precious Blood 1833-1905. By a Member of the Institute. 227 pages; 4 illustrations. 18/6

In spite of the fact that there are in existence a multitude of biographies and autobiographies covering a large variety of lives; there is a good reason for the introduction of yet another. The claim to recognition on the part of the subject of this work is that in her character of voluntary victim for sin she was a benefactress of the human race. All her days were consecrated to the adoration and glorification of the Saviour's Blood.

Come the End

Instructions for Young People on the Last Things. By Rev. T. C. SIEKMANN. 131 pages. 18/6

This book has been written to help the teen-ager to understand the real meaning of everlasting life and to answer the questions that confront them vividly perhaps for the first time.

Immortal Fire

A Journey through the Centuries with the Missionary Great. By Sister M. JUST, o.p. 604 pages; 19 illustrations. 56/-

This volume is a treasure house of information about the spread of the gospel for it narrates the lives of the great missionaries during the nineteenth centuries of Christian Apostolate.

Modern Questions*

In the Light of Christian Principles and the Teaching of the Papal Encyclicals. By Rev. R. G. BANDAS. Six series. Wrapped. Per set 12/-

Brief explanations of topics which are continually broached by young people in discussion groups.

The Ear of God*

By Rev. P. J. PEYTON, c.s.s. 226 pages. 21/-

This is a beautifully written book on prayer as the language of man to God. It clearly reveals the significance of prayer as a science governed by God's principles. It forcibly emphasizes the need for prayer in this desperate world, and illustrates how to pray and what to pray for. Fr Peyton is International Director of the 'Family Rosary Crusade'.
