30 -YEAR INDEX TO PERIODICAL ARTICLES RELATED TO LAW

ROY M. MERSKY,
Hyder Centennial Professor of Law and Law Librarian, The University of Texas

and
J. MYRON JACOBSTEIN,
Professor of Law and Law Librarian,
Stanford University, retired.

The new INDEX cumulates 30 years of articles appearing in over 1200 periodicals important to the legal researcher.

Started in 1958, the INDEX is geared to the interaction of law and other disciplines, indexing materials related to law in fields such as political science, sociology, international affairs and medicine. It uses legal subject headings and brings together articles that are scattered throughout other indexing services or not indexed at all.

Articles are selected from journals not in the Current Law Index, the Index to Foreign Legal Periodicals, or the Index to Legal Periodicals.

The 30-Year Index, covering 1958-1988, cumulates all previous editions. Supplements are issued four times each year with the last issue cumulative.
