Journal

IRAQ is a refereed journal devoted to studies of the history, art, archaeology, religion, economic and social life of Iraq, and to a lesser degree of the neighbouring countries where they relate to it, from the earliest times down to about AD 1700. Texts concerning these subjects, with translations and comments, will be considered; exclusively philological articles will not be accepted. Copyright is held by the British School of Archaeology in Iraq.

Wherever possible, articles should be submitted on disc and accompanied by a hard copy together with details of the programme and font(s) used. Please leave any formatting to a minimum; your hard copy will be marked up by the editors to conform with house style. Illustrations should be submitted as clear prints of photographs or strong outline drawings in ink. Laser-quality print-outs of complicated computer-generated tables or graphics would be appreciated.

Abbreviations follow those currently accepted in the journals Orientalia and Archiv für Orientforschung.

Articles should be sent to the Editors,
