

Language Teaching

The international abstracting journal for language teachers and applied linguists is indispensable for everyone concerned with the teaching and learning of foreign languages, including English as a second or foreign language:

- * keeps readers up to date with a minimum expenditure of time and money
- * offers comprehensive cover of the field in a compact and inexpensive form
- * articles from nearly 400 journals from all parts of the world are selected and abstracted by experts
- * international experience published in many languages is made accessible to an English-reading audience
- * information about good practice in classroom teaching and effective language learning, as well as the latest research findings

Published Quarterly

In every issue:

- * a state-of-the-art survey article on a major subject in language teaching
- * more than 150 abstracts in English
- * details of research projects in various countries
- * sources of further information for in-depth study – bibliographies and annotations of recent publications
- * subject and author indexes
