

2018 APA MEETINGS

Each divisional meeting in 2018 offers colloquium, symposium, and poster sessions, author-meets-critics sessions, affiliated group sessions, the Presidential Address, the Dewey Lecture, exhibits, a prize reception, and networking opportunities.

The 2018 Eastern Division meeting will be in beautiful Savannah, Georgia, at the Convention Center alongside the Savannah River. Don't miss the Teaching Hub mini-conference, the Barwise Lecture, and other APA committee sessions.

The upcoming Central Division meeting will return to its most popular venue—Chicago's Palmer House Hilton. The meeting features the Walter De Gruyter Stiftung Kant Lecture, committee sessions on implicit bias and on policing, a session on the APA's Good Practices Guide, and more.

The next Pacific Division meeting will be in the Gaslamp Quarter of sunny San Diego. Outstanding events include the Romanell Lecture, the Berggruen Prize Lecture, the Mini-Conference on Diversity & Inclusion, the Teaching Hub, a public session on immigration, and memorial sessions for Marilyn Adams and Delia Graff Fara.

Philosophy

Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

Cambridge is widely regarded as one of the world's premier publishers of philosophical research, having one of the most recognisable and distinguished books lists as well as a growing collection of leading journals.

Our list brings a range of high-quality books by distinguished authors to readers at both student and specialist level.

All periods and sub-areas of philosophy are covered, and the list is particularly strong in history of philosophy.
