Race for the Exits

The Unraveling of Japan's System of Social Protection

Leonard J. Schoppa

"This creative and important book addresses the most profound conundrum posed by Japanese politics in the past few decades: Given economic collapse and the failure of reform, why aren't the Japanese up in arms?"

—Frances Rosenbluth, Yale University
$39.95 cloth

Beyond Japan

The Dynamics of East Asian Regionalism

edited by Peter J. Katzenstein and Takashi Shiraishi

CORNELL STUDIES IN POLITICAL ECONOMY

"Drawing attention to certain political, social, and economic developments in Japan, this book offers important insights on the changing engagement of Japan with East Asia since the early 1990s."

—Muthiah Alagappa, Director,
East-West Center Washington
$49.95 cloth, $24.95 paper

One World of Welfare

Japan in Comparative Perspective

Gregory J. Kasza

"In giving social policy the serious attention it deserves, Gregory J. Kasza combines systematic and intensive research with a rather combative stance fueled by common sense."

—John Creighton Campbell,
University of Michigan
$35.00 cloth

The Social Sources of Financial Power

Domestic Legitimacy and International Financial Orders

Leonard Seabrooke

"Seabrooke argues convincingly that if a state's credit policies at home are unstable, then that state cannot seriously affect the global financial order."

—Mark Blyth, Johns Hopkins University

TRACKING GLOBALIZATION

Globalizing Tobacco Control

Globalizing Tobacco Control

Anti-smoking Campaigns in California, France, and Japan

Roddey Reid

Compares anti-smoking campaigns in the United States, France, and Japan and reveals that while the gradual replacement of smoking with non-smoking as the social norm is a global phenomenon, it has not followed the same trajectory everywhere.

Nation-Building

Beyond Afghanistan and Iraq
edited by Francis Fukuyama

Best-selling author Francis Fukuyama brings together academics, political analysts, and practitioners to reflect on the U.S. experience with nation-building, from its historical underpinnings to its modern-day consequences. The contributors dissect mistakes, false starts, and lessons learned from the cases of Afghanistan and Iraq within the broader context of reconstruction efforts in other parts of the world, including Latin America, Japan, and the Balkans.

Forum on Constructive Capitalism:
Francis Fukuyama, Series Editor
$21.95 paperback

Strategies of Dominance

The Misdirection of U.S. Foreign Policy

P. Edward Haley

"The basic theme is important and valid, Haley has gathered a lot of good material, and the concluding chapter is excellent."

—Avis Bohlen, former Assistant Secretary of State for Arms Control, U.S. Department of State

Woodrow Wilson Center Press
$22.95 paperback

A Troubled Peace

U.S. Policy and the Two Koreas
Chae-Jin Lee

Chae-Jin Lee reviews the vicissitudes of U.S. policy toward South and North Korea since 1948 when rival regimes were installed on the Korean peninsula. His objective, comprehensive, and definitive study reveals a dynamic—and incredibly complex—series of relationships underpinning a troubled and tenuous peace.

$27.95 paperback

Nuclear First Strike

Consequences of a Broken Taboo
George H. Quester

This provocative work examines various scenarios in which the deployment of nuclear weapons could occur, the probable consequences of such an escalation, the likely world reactions, and the plausible policy ramifications. Rather than projecting the physical damage that would result from nuclear attacks, George H. Quester offers an exploration of the political, psychological, and social aftermath of nuclear conflict.
