

Foreign Area Fellowship Program

The Foreign Area Fellowship Program of the Joint Committee of the American Council of Learned Societies and the Social Science Research Council constitutes a major source of support for research abroad in Latin American studies. Current Latin American fellows under the program number 48 from 17 universities in the United States. Many of them divide their time under the program between study at their home institutions and research in a Latin American country.

NEW AND SUSPENDED PERIODICAL
PUBLICATIONS ON LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

Anuario

Published annually by the Instituto de Antropología e Historia
Facultad de Humanidades y Educación
Universidad Central de Venezuela
Caracas, Venezuela

Primer número: 1964

This publication deals mainly in the social sciences and contains works on history, linguistics, ethnology, and anthropology.

Boletín Informativo de Investigaciones Sociológicas

Published (periodicity unknown) by the Instituto de Desarrollo Económico y Social

Cangallo 1615, 7° Piso
Buenos Aires, Argentina
Director: Adolfo Critto

Primer número: 1964

The main purpose of this periodical is to provide thorough information on ongoing research in the fields of economics, sociology, and economic and social history in Argentina. It is in mimeographed form.

Cebela

Published (periodicity unknown) by the Centro Brasileiro de Estudos Latino-Americanos

Faculdade de Filosofia
University of Rio Grande do Sul
Av. Paulo Gama, Pôrto Alegre
Rio Grande do Sul, Brasil

Latin American Research Review

Director: João-Francisco Ferreira

Primer numero: julho de 1965

Contains articles on Latin American literature and literary figures.

CLA Report

Published irregularly by the Council for Latin America

120 East 56th Street

New York, New York 10022

Editor: Joan Allen

First issue: October, 1965

This is a membership bulletin for the Council for Latin America and contains accounts of the activities of the Council. The Council for Latin America is composed of 180 member companies with business interests in the Latin American area.

Colombia Today

Published monthly by the Colombia Information Service

Colombia Center

140 E. 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022

First issue: November, 1965

This is a newsletter which "will strive to present a clear picture of the progress . . . of Colombia . . . by bringing into focus the positive, constructive aspects of Colombia today." Persons interested in being placed on the mailing list should write the above address.

Cuadernos (ceased publication)

Published monthly by the Congreso por la Libertad de Cultura

23 Rue de la Pépinière VIII, Paris, France

Director: German Arciniegas

Suspended publication: September 1965

The editors hope to begin publishing a new magazine in 1966. Inquiries should be directed to the above address.

Cuadernos de Geografía y de Historia Económica y Social del Perú

In preparation to be published in 1966

For further information, contact G. de Reparaz, Cuadernos de Geografía y de Historia Económica y Social del Perú

Apartado 4110, Lima, Perú.

Estudos Linguísticos

Published twice a year

General editors: J. Mattôso Câmara, Jr.; F. Gomes de Matos; Aryon Rodrigues

Rua da Aurora, 103-1.º

Recife-Pe.-Brazil

First issue: December, 1965

A Brazilian journal featuring articles in both English and Portuguese on theoretical and applied linguistics.

Historia y Cultura

Published twice a year by Museo Nacional de Historia

Plaza Bolivar-Pueblo Libre

Apartado No. 1992, Lima, Peru

Director: José María Arguedas

Primer número: March, 1965

Contains articles on Peruvian history and book reviews.

Intercambio

Published eight times a year by the Council for Latin America, Inc.

120 East 56th Street, New York, New York 10022

Editor: Joan Allen

First issue: March, 1965

This is a newsletter of the activities of the business community in Latin America, and of U.S. companies in Latin America.

Jahrbuch für Geschichte von Staat, Wirtschaft und Gesellschaft Lateinamerikas

Editors: Richard Konetzke and Hermann Kellenbenz

University of Cologne, Germany

First issue: 1964

Works by North Americans, South Americans, Germans, and others were included in the volume.

The Journal of Developing Areas

Published quarterly at Western Illinois University

Macomb, Illinois 61455

Editor: Spencer H. Brown (Acting Editor)

First issue: September, 1966

The Journal's objective will be to stimulate the descriptive and comparative study of regional development, past and present, in order to promote fuller understanding of man's relationship to the developmental process. The interdisciplinary approach is encouraged, and some issues will be devoted to specific regions viewed from varied methodological perspectives. As the Journal is intended to be international, it will welcome and consider articles from scholars in all countries.

Latin American Research Review

The Latin American Times (ceased publication)

English-language newspaper published daily (except Saturday and Sunday)

Editor: Jorge Losada

Suspended publication: October 1965

See LARR, Vol. I, No. 1, p. 201, for a fuller description of the newspaper, which began publication in June, 1965.

Mirador

Published monthly (except January and February) by the Fundación Interamericana Para Las Artes

55 West 44th Street, New York, New York 10036

Editor: Robert Wool

First issue: October, 1965

Contains articles on the activities of the artistic world in the various Latin American countries. This publication can be received by air mail, and without charge, by sending name and address to Mirador, at the above address

The OAS Chronicle

Published bi-monthly by the Pan American Union

Pan American Union, Washington, D.C.

General Director: Arturo Morales Carrión

First issue: August, 1965

Política Externa Independente

Published quarterly by Editôra Civilização Brasileira S.A.

Rua 7 de Setembro, 97, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

Director: Enio Silveira

Primer número: May, 1965

A scholarly publication with articles expressing Brazilian views on the spectrum of international affairs, with particular emphasis on problems of economic, social, and political development globally, regionally, and in Brazil.

Progreso

Published annually by Vision, Inc.

Vision Building, 635 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10022

Director: Nicholas Raymond

First issue: 1964

Written in Spanish, this is a publication on economic development in Latin America.

Repertorio Centroamericano

Published quarterly by the Secretaría Permanente del Consejo Superior

Universitario Centroamericano

Ciudad Universitaria "Rodrigo Facio," San José, Costa Rica

Director: Sergio Ramirez

Primer número: diciembre de 1964

Contains articles of both cultural and scientific interest concerning Latin America.

Revista de la Facultad de Ciencias Económicas

Published twice a year by the Universidad Nacional de Colombia

Ciudad Universitaria, Bogotá, Colombia

Coordinator: Ovidio Oundjian B.

Primer número: 1965

Contains articles on economics, development, marketing, etc.

Revista Salvadoreña de Ciencias Sociales

Published quarterly by the Asociación Salvadoreña de Sociología y la Escuela de Ciencias Sociales de la Facultad de Humanidades

Editorial Universitaria "José B. Cisneros"

5ª Calle Oriente No. 220, San Salvador, El Salvador

Director: David Luna

Primer número: enero-marza de 1965

UASD

Published (periodicity unknown) by the Universidad Autónoma de Santo Domingo

Ciudad Universitaria, Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

Primer número: mayo de 1965

Contains historic, scientific and literary articles.

NEWS TO BE REPORTED IN LARR I: 3

News items on Libraries, Archives, Bibliographical Activities; Grants, Awards, Prizes; Major Latin American Art Exhibits; Recent Deaths; and the Forum are not included in this issue due to limitations on space. Information already received as well as new material pertaining to these sections will be reported in LARR I: 3. New items to be covered should reach the News Section editor by mid-March. Persons interested in obtaining information on Grants, Awards, and Prizes with deadlines prior to July 1966 should also address inquiries to this desk.