MLA-EBSCO Collaboration for Information Literacy Prize

Thanks to a grant from EBSCO, the Modern Language Association confers two annual awards of $500 each for coursework developed in collaboration between department faculty members and academic librarians in literature, language, or related disciplines.

The award recognizes successful integration of the disciplinary objectives of the course with learning objectives in information literacy, as defined in the Association of College and Research Libraries' Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education.

Have You Joined an MLA Forum?

Forums are groups that represent areas of scholarly and professional interests for MLA members. In addition to providing a community of scholars with whom you can share your work, forums offer opportunities to participate in guaranteed convention sessions and—through forum delegate elections—ensure breadth of representation in the MLA Delegate Assembly.

Members may choose up to five primary forum affiliations. Selecting a forum allows you to vote in its forum delegate election—and you can join the affiliated MLA Commons group, where members post calls for papers and share scholarship and teaching resources.

To select your primary forums, visit My MLA between 15 December and 15 October.
