THE ANTIQUARIES JOURNAL

The Antiquaries Journal is concerned with the study of the human past through material culture and material remains. It is international, multi-period and multi-disciplinary in scope, covering the full range of historical disciplines from earliest prehistory to the recent past, including, but not confined to, archaeology, art history, architectural and buildings history, conservation, heraldry, and the histories of collecting and intellectual enquiry into the past.

Communications should be sent to the Journal Editor, The Society of Antiquaries of London, Burlington House, Piccadilly, London W1J 0BE.
