Law and History Review is a semi-annual publication of Cornell Law School and the American Society for Legal History. The purpose of the Review is to further research and writing in the fields of the social history of law and the history of legal ideas and institutions. Publication of the Review is made possible in part by financial assistance provided by the Law-Milton and Eleanor Gould Fund.

The Editor welcomes unsolicited manuscripts, books for review and suggestions concerning the Review. Manuscripts should be submitted to the editorial office at Cornell. The text should be typed, double-spaced, on 8 1/2" x 11" paper with ample margins on all sides. Footnotes should be typed, double-spaced, separate from the text. Footnotes should conform to the Law and History Review style sheet, a copy of which is available on request. Authors of accepted manuscripts should contact the editorial office regarding computer compatibility.

Editorial and business communications should be directed to Editor, Law and History Review, Cornell Law School, Myron Taylor Hall, Ithaca, N.Y. 14853-4901 (telephone: 607/255-7477). ISSN 0738-2480
