The Journal of Hellenic Studies was first issued in 1880, and has since been published in half-yearly parts. It is recognised both at home and abroad as the leading British organ of Greek archæology. Fifty-five volumes and five supplements have been issued. It contains, in addition to articles by first authorities, abundant plates and other illustrations, and reviews of recent books of importance to classical studies. It is issued free to members.

Application for membership, or for information about the Society, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Hellenic Society, at 50 Bedford Square, London, W.C.1
